Detailed Itinerary

Day 1 - TAORMINA

Upon arrival in Sicily, our friendly representatives will greet you at the Fontanarossa International Airport (Catania CTA)* and drive you to your 4-star hotel in Taormina (41 miles/ 66 km from the airport).

On the way we will explain in more details your 4-nights/5-days itinerary.

The hotel is located right in the city center of Taormina, just few steps from the cable car which connect the old town to the beach in front of the island of Isola Bella.
The hotel is on a fertile hill (200 m above a turquoise sea) and overlooks the beautiful bay of Isola Bella with a spectacular view of Mount Etna, the highest volcano in Europe.

Accommodation in Classic Double Room with sea-view.

Check-in and free time at leisure.

Overnight: Taormina.

*Transfer from/to different airports on request.

Day 2 and Day 3 – Choice between 2 of these Full Day Trips:

A) Visit Syracuse, a 2700 years old city: it was founded by Ancient Greek Corinthians and included in the Unesco Heritage List.
Start with the cathedral of Ortigia which incorporates the temple of Athena and it is the first Christian church in Europe. Then explore the archaeological park of Syracuse where you will see the Greek theatre, the Ear of Dionysius and the Roman amphitheatre.

B) Discover Mt. Etna, the tallest active volcano in Europe, added to the list of Unesco World Heritage Sites in June 2013.
Enjoy a walk into the stunning extinguished Silvestri Craters and admire the signs of last eruptions. Reach an old winery at the slopes of the volcano and experience the refined Etna wines.

C) Visit the city centre of Catania (a UNESCO World Heritage Site), famous for the Roman amphitheatre and many monuments from the Baroque period. Enjoy a great lunch in Acitrezza a small town on the legendary Cyclops Coast and look at "faraglioni" (huge rocks that Polyphemus casts towards Odysseus's ship) and Lachea Island.

All these full day trips include a private transfer and a lunch at great restaurants. Professional English-speaking guides can be provided on request.

Overnight: Taormina.

Day 4 – TAORMINA

Have a continental breakfast and spend a free day in Taormina*, the jewel of Sicily.
Take the cable car which connect the old town to the beach in front of the island of Isola Bella or spend a whole day visiting Taormina.
Taormina combines the natural beauty with the artistic and archaeological heritage: in addition to the nice cathedral and the streets of the old town,
Taormina is famous for its ancient theatre (built by the Greeks around the second century BC), that is the place of important music and theatre shows, especially during the summer.
Taormina was originally the center of Hellenistic culture, it has attracted the attention of many artists and writers in modern times and today is the most fashionable destination in Sicily.
* A guided tour of the city center with a professional English-speaking tourist guide is available on request.

Overnight: Taormina.

Day 5 – DEPARTURE

After breakfast have a free day in Taormina; have a private transfer to the airport of Catania according to the departure time.

HISTORY OF SICILY

Sicily has been inhabited since the Paleolithic and Mesolithic. It had been part of Greece, and then it was invaded and ruled by many different conquerors, such as Romans, Arabs, Normans, Swabians, Spanish and French. Those populations, of course, brought in the island their arts, science, culture and architecture.

GEOGRAPHY

Sicily is the largest Italian region (27.000 km²: larger as Israel, Belgium or the State of Massachusetts).

Palermo is the capital (population: 700.000). Total Sicilian population is 5.000.000.

Sicily has a roughly triangular shape, which earned it the name of Trinacria (in Greek "three promontories"). Sicily is in the middle of Mediterranean Sea and it is the largest of its islands.

Sicily's interior offers a wide variety of landscapes: mountains, hills, gorges and two fertile large plains around Catania and Palermo.

Mount Etna (10900ft/3348 meters) is the largest and the tallest active volcano in Europe. It is also the tallest mountain in Sicily.

Sicily has got 6 airports to provide easy access to the various areas of the island; they are well served by international, national and low cost airlines.

Time Difference: GMT +1 Hour. Currency: Euro.

CLIMATE

Sicily has a typical Mediterranean climate with dry and warm summers and mild, wet winters. August tends to be the hottest month of the year (average maximum temperature is 77°F/26°C), February is the coldest (average minimum temperature is 50°F/10°C). The rainy season is from November to March.

SICILIAN FOOD AND WINE

Sicilian cuisine, based on the values of the Mediterranean diet (Unesco Heritage), is a rich melting pot of flavors and unique combinations.
With the help of the most skilled chefs you will discover the ancient Sicilian culinary tradition that is the result of many foreign cultures alternating in the island during its many centuries of history.

Sicilian foods are combined with the most refined Sicilian wines because the island had a strong wine-growing vocation (Greek settlers produced wine in Sicily before the Romans started their own vineyards in the 2nd century B.C.).

If you are a food lover and appreciate culinary art, you will be welcomed in the most charming restaurants and most beautiful wineries. You will always enter in a stimulating sensory environment where you will be seduced by amazing flavours and essences.
